PAPAL BLESSING BESTOWED.
More than 100,000 persons in Philadelphia received the papal blessing from Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli, legate of Pope Pius X., when he, with other dignitaries of the Roman Catholic Church, attended the dedication of the first Greek Catholic Cathedral in this country and the laying of the cornerstone of the new edifice for St. Patrick's Church. The stone which was cut from the rock on which St. Patrick preached in Ireland, was laid by Cardinal Logue, primate of Ireland, who came to this country expressly to perform the ceremony. Elaborate services marked both ceremonies. At the entrance of the new cathedral Cardinal Vannutelli was met by Bishop Orlynski, of the local diocese, followed by a retinue of priests. As the papal legate crossed the threshold the bishop knelt before him and offered his elaborate crozier as a token of obedience to the Church of Rome. Metropolitan Septycki, who presided at the services, was assisted by Archbishop Falconio and Archbishop Ryan.

The congregations of six other churches, including the one in the Italian district and an African Roman Catholic Church, were visited in the course of the day by Cardinal Vannutelli. On his arrival in Philadelphia he was met by escorts of the Knights of the Order of St. John and the Knights of Columbus.

RIOT ON A CIRCUS TRAIN.
Following serious rioting early yesterday morning aboard the first section of the Hagenback-Wallace circus train, en route from Columbia, S. C., to Augusta, in which a white man was shot to death, a negro forced to jump from the rapidly moving train, and an attempt made to rob employees of the circus, wholesale arrests were made by the Augusta police on the arrival of the train at that place.

Three negroes, one of whom confessed a part in the trouble on the train, are among those in the county jail. They are charged with murder and rioting.

Paul A. Williams, a Southern Railway shipping clerk, at Columbia, was shot to death, robbed and thrown from the train.

J. C. Weekly, a companion of Williams, saved himself from the fury of the negro rowdies by concealing himself on the train.

John Wilson and Elijah Clark, the negro employees of the circus, began quarreling with Williams and Weekly, according to the confession of William Gresham, another negro circus hand, who is held with Wilson and Clark.

Gresham declares Clark forced the unknown negro to leap from the train, and then with Wilson, started a search for Weekly who had disappeared.

Following this, the negroes are said to have started through the train to rob other employees when they were placed under arrest by circus detectives.

LOST DIAMOND NECKLACE.
A diamond necklace, valued at $25,000, is reported missing by Mrs. Oscar O. Turner, formerly of Baltimore, now living at the Waldorf-Astoria. Her loss, which became publicly known only last night, was reported to Capt. Witt, of the Hamburg-American liner Deutschland, which arrived at New York on Saturday with Mrs. Turner among the passengers.

According to Mrs. Turner she gave her jewels to the ship's purser for safe-keeping and received them from the ship's strong box as the vessel neared New York. Then, making an inventory, she found the necklace missing. Other jewelry and $5,000 in cash were found intact. As Mrs. Turner did not examine her jewels before giving them in bulk to the purser, she is not sure whether the theft occurred on the vessel or in Europe.

Capt. Witt, of the steamer, asked Mrs. Turner if she had examined the jewel case before intrusting it with the purser, and she said she had not. The purser himself says he never knew the contents of the jewel cases unless the owners told him.

PREACHER DROPS DEAD.
Socialist candidates for governor in three States were the speakers at a mass-meeting of their followers held in Union Square New York last night. They are Charles Edward Russell, the candidate in New York; Wilson B. Killenbeck, socialist candidate for governor of New Jersey, and Robert Hunter, the nominee in Connecticut.

During his address Killenbeck related this strange incident: "As I finished speaking in Providence, R. I., last Wednesday evening, a preacher in the crowd got up and denounced my speech, saying he would preach a sermon against socialism; that its doctrines are ruinous and teach immorality. A man in the audience shouted 'You are a liar.' The preacher said he was not lying and holding his hand aloft, said: 'If I am telling an untruth I hope the Almighty will strike me dead where I stand.' He had no sooner uttered these words than he fell dead there on the square. That is no joke, it occurred last Wednesday night. The preacher's name was Rev. George Vaughan, and the occurrence took place in Hoyle Square, Providence."

THE LOS ANGELES EXPLOSION.
A large force of workmen, after digging for 30 hours into the debris of the Times building in Los Angeles, Cal., wrecked by an explosion Saturday morning, have unearthed five of the 19 bodies buried in the ruins.

The police are guarding the homes of General Harrison Gray Otis, proprietor of the Times, and of General Manager Harry Chandler. Guards are also watching over the plants of several concerns recently involved in strikes.

Three arrests have been made since the explosion. One of the suspects is an alleged anarchist, Martin Eagan. In the hope of securing information as to the perpetrators of the outrage, Mayor Alexander has increased the city's offer of reward to $10,000.

This together with the offers of local newspapers and labor organizations whose leaders have announced a determination to assist in the search for the criminals, raises the total amount of reward to $18,500. The city's offer is intended to tempt anyone having knowledge of a dynamite conspiracy to divulge the secret. There are no conditions.

A powerful infernal machine was also found yesterday in the residence of Secretary Zealandelaar, of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association.

Gen. Otis and the other responsible heads of the Times unsuccessfully charge the Times building disaster and the narrowly averted attempts at further destruction of life and property to labor union sources.

With equal emphasis the leaders of union labor repudiate the accusation and offer all aid in their power to detect the culprits.

BROTHERHOOD OF ST. ANDREW.
Dr. Hubert Carlton, of Boston, secretary of St. Andrew's Brotherhood, read numerous telegrams of greeting to the convention at Nashville Tenn., yesterday, including messages from the primate of the Church of New Zealand, councils at Edinburgh, Scotland and Honolulu.

The report of the National Council was read by Dr. Carlton. The council passed a resolution to raise $50,000 as a memorial fund in behalf of James L. Houghtaling, founder of the brotherhood, who died in Chicago in July, of which amount more than $6,000 has been subscribed.

Statistics of growth show 164 chapters in the senior department, against 145 last year, and in the junior department 137 chapters, against 127 last year.

A fund of $25,000 for forward movement is recommended. The council report was approved by the convention.

A TRAGEDY.
Charles Baston, 38 years old, a policeman, of the Seventh precinct, Washington, sent four bullets into the brain of his wife Catherine Baston, Saturday night, killing her instantly.

The tragedy occurred in Georgetown in front of 1037 Thirtieth street, the home of Mrs. Emma Holiday, widow of David C. Holiday, and a few doors from the Baston home, at 1029 Thirtieth street. The shooting followed a series of quarrels, according to the neighbors, between Baston and his wife, who, also was 38 years old. After killing his wife Baston sent a bullet through the rim of his hat, according to witnesses, in an effort to end his own life. Neighbors of the Bastons say that the immediate cause of the tragedy was the demand of Mrs. Baston for a sum of money. They say they saw her run after her husband soon after he left the house at 8:30 o'clock, and heard her ask him for money. A few minutes later the shots were fired, and Mrs. Baston lay dead on the pavement.

When you take into consideration all the high-class, completed, full city improvements in

ROSEMONT
The nineteen completed handsome homes and two more to be built at once; also the further facts that a number of lots are sold, which have not yet been built upon, leaving but three unsold lots on one side of the Rosemont Avenue, throughout its entire length, the question of the Rosemont and absolute supremacy of the property a high-class residence section is settled at any possible doubt.

Now is the Time
To get one of the few handsome, comfortable homes yet unsold. I will be glad to show you these houses at your convenience.

Ely's Cream Balm has been tried and not found wanting in thousands of homes all over the country. It has won a place in the family medicine chest among the reliable household remedies where it is kept at hand for use in treating cold in the head just as soon as some member of the household begins the preliminary sneezing or snuffling. It gives immediate relief and a day or two's treatment will put a stop to a cold which might, if not checked, become chronic and run into a bad case of catarrh.
